

09-14-06 KITCHEN COMBAT

Our kitchen is vast territory where unspeakable horrors have been committed. Burnt toast, clumpy KD, mass amounts of butter and salt - all designed to mask our unsavoury cooking skills.

So we're preparing for battle (insert showdown movie music here). Which means we're also prepping our fashion game plan. (All great warriors wear a uniform into combat, so why not us?) Our choice? The most ladylike of accoutrements: the new line of aprons from Domistyle. (And we knew them when.)

The Sexy Mini's ($28-$32) with their ribbon ties and extra-short length are sure to distract many a guest from the smoke and sounds that result from our scuffle with the broiler. Our favourite: the Meshy Mini ($32), complete with a lace bib and verbiage that screams, "It's on."

Should you choose to duel the forces of kitchen evil with your home-grown little sidekick, the new Kid's Line ($30) with pockets and extra large strings is your child's perfect accessory.

Hey, you might as well look cute when waging wars against the kitchen appliances (faulty cookbooks not included).

Tip: See the entire line September 16-17 at The Clothing Show at Exhibition Place.
